7/01 : Charlie Hebdo

A terrorist attack against the satirist French newspaper Charlie Hebdo took place on January 7th, 2015 at about 11h30 am .

Two men went into the newspaper office and killed eleven people among whom the famous illustrators Wolinski, Charb, Cabu and Tignous. Many demonstrations have been organized in French cities.

14 /02: Saint Valentine's Day is an old tradition in countries all around the world. It is celebrated on February 14th.

People send cards, flowers, sweets and chocolates to their lovers... with an anonymous message!

People also write poems to declare their love.

St Valentine's Day is an old custom in Britain, America and other English-speaking countries.

17/02 : Shrove Tuesday

It is celebrated in February, forty days before Easter.

People eat pancakes and children dress up.

The Rio Carnival is the most popular national holiday in Brazil. It takes place every year .

In New Orleans, Mardi Gras, also called Fat Tuesday is a Christian holiday.

Notting Hill carnival, in Great Britain, is also very famous too.

Nelson Mandela was born on July 29th ,1918 in Mvezo (South Africa). He was the President of South Africa. He was a civil rights activist.He spent 27 years in prison because he was against apartheid. He married several times, he had six children and twenty grandchildren. He was awarded the Nobel Prize in 1993. Nelson Mandela died on December 5, 2013 in Johannesburg, South Africa.
