THE DEVIL

BY DORIAN, SEBASTIEN AND LUCIEN

The story took place in 1936. Robert Collins and Gilbert Tony were drinking a few beers in a bar in Texas. Gilbert was chatting with Robert.

Suddenly the room was invaded by a smell of burning. Their tee-shirts were burning. All of a sudden, the devil appeared in the bar and they heard a screeching noise. They saw the devil appearing.

Robert Collins was shocked and Gilbert Tony ran away. Robert Collins made a deal with the devil and he became immortal.

THE CAT GHOST

BY LILOU, CORALIE, OCEANE AND LEA

My name is Lilou, I'm 15 years old. I was travelling with my best friends Coralie and Océane in Texas. We were in a camping. This story took place four years ago during the holidays.

It was hot, we were swimming and having fun together. I decided to go back to our mobil-home because I was tired. I was on my way to the mobil-home when I felt someone physically pass through me. I saw a transparent cat with long ears and big green eyes. I smelt a strong odour of milk and I heard a ghostly « miaow ». I cried and I ran to the swimming pool to meet my friends and tell them my story.

The cat must have been run over. It can't have been a domestic cat because it was wild and it looked fierce. It must have been killed by his master. Its belly was bleeding.

My first interaction with a ghost was very traumatizing, I will never forget it. I hope I will never meet a ghost again.

THE REVENGE OF THE QUEEN

BY CLARA, AMELIE, MYLENE AND MARC

It was brilliant moonlight, in 1919 in the Tower of London.
A wife was executed by her husband, King Henry VIII.
The woman was dressed in a long gown. She had beautiful hair and amazing jewels.

Ten years later, during a night visit, a yeamen warder and his son heard chains so they hurried towards the underground vaults where they saw a shadow, propably the shadow of a woman.
Suddenly they heard a piano and the yeamen warder felt a presence. I smelt a perfume of lavender.

The shadowy figure must have been Henry VIII's wife, Ann Boleyn. The King claimed that she had betrayed him.

Today, it is said that she hates men and that she wants to take revenge. She haunts the castle and frightens all the male tourists and warders.

THE JELLY QUEEN

BY ANTONIN, STEPHANE, JULIEN AND CLEMENT

Phelipe Ramboul and John Macron were on holidays with their parents in a castle in the countryside near London. It was late in the evening. Outside there was a big storm. The two children were playing cards and savouring delicious and colourful sweets. When Phelipe put the queen on the table, something unbelievable happened.

They saw a fat ghostly figure next to the table. The shadowy figure looked completely crazy. The room was invaded by a perfume of strawberry and a rainbow appeared. They heard candy wrappers noises. Phelipe and John were scared. They touched the ghost and their hands became sticky. They ran to their rooms and on their way, they saw the portrait of a fat woman in the huge hall.

The woman, whose name was Jelly, must have been the owner of the castle. She was crazy about candies. The ghostly figure is called « Jelly Queen ». Each time Jelly sees or smells a candy, she appears and frightens the children, trying to steal them their candies.

KAYLY IN THE WORLD OF THE DEAD

BY MARTIN, ALEXIA, JUSTINE AND CAMILLE

Are you ready ? Are you sure? OK ! Let's start !

Kayly was a little girl. She was seven years old. She was small and she had long black hair. She lived in Scotland in Nightmare City. She lived in a small four-story house. There was a long corridor which led to stairs at the end. Kayly lived with her brother and her parents.

One night, at 2 a.m., kayly wasn't sleeping. Suddenly, a mysterious book fell from the shelf. Kayly heard a boy crying and sobbing in the photo album. She picked up the photo album and she opened it. She smelt a scent of perfume and a strong smell of burning. When she opened the photo album, the boy grasped her leg and got out of the book. Suddenly, the walls started shaking. She was possessed by the boy. She turned into a dark, horrible demon. She had black hair and her eyes became black too. She had a long pointed nose. She was wearing a white dress. Her parents took their daughter to be exorcized.

Kayly was on a chair and they covered her with a white sheet. They pronounced some strange incantations. Kayly started bleeding and an evil spirit got out.

The boy must have died in a fire. He haunts the house waiting for his parents and his little sister who was seven years old and had long black hair.

Kayly became a normal girl, the boy was destroyed ! Kayly and her parents moved and settled in London, England and they started a new life.

A WAR GHOST

BY XAVIER, ALAXANDRE AND ANTOINE

The story take place in the west of France in November 1949. Lucas, José and Lucie were playing with Bernard. Suddenty : they saw the ghost of a soldier who must have died during World War II. He was headless and he was wearing a uniform. He had a knife and a rifle.

When the ghost appered, they heard a big exposion and terrible complaints. They smelt gun powder.

The ghost must have been Lucie's boyfriend who had been deadly hurt by the explosion of a grenade.

THE HANTED DOLL

BY MATHILDA, LEONORE AND MORGANE

I was travelling in Scotland with my two best friends who were impatient to visit this country. It was summer and the sun was shining. After a long travel by car, we arrived in my grand mother's manor where I had spent my childhood. We unpacked our cases. Then Léonore decided to visit the attic. After a while, she found a mysterious doll. The doll was wearing a beautiful dress and glossy black shoes.

Her eyes were big and blue and she had curly long blond hair. We decided to keep it.

In the middle of the night, we heard strange noises so we decided to get up. The doll wasn't in the room anymore but we suddenly heard a little girl singing. We were frightened. We ran in the kitchen and we saw the doll. The doll which was holding a knife was staring at us. She spoke to us : « Would you like to play with me ? » She had the voice of a little girl. Then she started sobbing. We felt a deep wave of sorrow and we smelt a perfume of strawberry.

It was at this moment that we understood that the doll was haunted. The doll's owner must have been a little girl who had died in an accident because there were blood stains on the doll's clothes. The girl, whose doll was beautiful, always kept it with her and shared her secrets. The doll may have been extremely sad when the little girl died.

This experience was very frightening.

HALLOWEEN NIGHT

BY ANTOINE, JOSE AND PAUL

This story took place on Halloween night in the suburb of NYC. My name is Fat Paul and on this Halloween night my friend and I were dressed up. I was Spiderman and he was Batman. We were knocking at the doors, playing « Trick or treat ».

Next to the forest, there was a very old house dating of the Civil war. We came into the house when we saw a headless ghost and the ghost of soldier with drums. The headless ghost was wearing a blue uniform and the drummer had a grey one. When we came closer, they disappeared. A few minutes later we heard a whisper and a burst of laughs. We heard a door creaking. We ran away. We were so frightened. These two ghosts must have been soldiers during World War II. This house may have been their headquarters during the resistance movement.

On each Halloween night, I tell this story.

AN UNFAITHFUL HUSBAND

BY AUGUSTINE, CHARLINE, QUENTIN AND JOSHUA

This story took place on July 10th 2015. It was summer. Jonas and Julie Zir were a newly married couple. They were moving in their new house in London. They were stocking some of their belongings in the cellar which was cold, dark and gloomy when the door suddenly closed.

They felt someone physically pass through them and they could smell a strong scent of perfume.

Jonas saw a woman wearing a black dress and a white apron, holding a baby in her arms. Jonas and Julie heard a nursery rhyme. We felt a deep wave of sorrow and loneliness.

This woman must have worked in this house. She must have been the maid of a rich family. The father of the family may have fallen in love with her. She might have got pregnant but the father must have refused to tell the truth to his wife. He may have pushed her down the cellar stairs to get rid of her, making it believe it was a terrible accident.

MARTINE AND THE MANOR

BY ALEXANDRE, DIMITRI AND LUCA

In 2006, when I was 12 years old, I went to a French manor in Chazelot with my parents for the holidays. When we arrived, a couple who was on holidays too was waiting for the owner too. When the owner arrived, he gave us our key and we headed up to our room. After dinner, we were chatting in the living-room with the other guests about ghost experiences.

At approximately 2 a.m., I was tired so I went to bed but when I opened the door, I saw a shadowy white woman sitting next to the window. She came near me and she took my hand. Her hand was wet. A wave of anger came over me and she said to me "I'll kill you". I was petrified. Five minutes later, the woman went back to the window. I screamed and my parents came into my room but the woman had disappeared so they couldn't see her.

The next day, during the breakfast, I told the other guests about the ghost I met. The man explained me that her name was Martine and she was killed by her husband. He pushed her through the window and she fell in the river and she died. The husband's new lover settled in the manor after Martine's death. Martine haunts the manor and she wants to take revenge.

A GHOST IN THE CLASS

BY STACY, MELANIE AND JUSTINE

This story took place on Monday, April 26th 1997. It was 10.30 a.m. in a secondary school in Ottawa, Canada.

It was break time and Daniel was alone in the classroom 666. Suddenly a ghost appeared. It was the ghost of a schoolgirl. She was dressed in a red school uniform, she had big black eyes and long straight red hair and she had flower-shaped earrings. Daniel heard a chalk on the board and he smelt a strong scent of flowers : a mix of roses and lily. He tried to talk to the ghost but the girl remained silent. She put her hand on Daniel's shoulder. He was surprised and felt a deep wave of sorrow.

In the past, the schoolgirl used to pick up flowers in her garden. She was in love with a popular boy and they had a hidden love affair. He left her because he was popular and she wasn't popular, she was a nerd. She threatened him to tell the truth to his " clique " so he pushed her through the window of the classroom.
